We invite you to spend a day with us rehearsing and performing Fauré's Requiem and Franck's Panis Angelicus.

The day will be led by our Musical Director, Alexander Turner, and accompanied by James Mooney-Dutton. Both Alex and James will be providing the support, encouragement, learning opportunities and enjoyment that they provide for us on a weekly basis.

Music copies will be available to borrow but, if you wish to provide your own, we will be using Fauré's Requiem (Novello edition) and Franck's Panis Angelicus from The Greatest Choral Classics (Novello).

There will be breaks during the workshop and before the concert when light refreshments will be available, but you may wish to bring your own lunch and other refreshments.

We will be joined by soprano and baritone soloists for the concert.
